RE: SID 96 /Election Information for 2010
Our File No. 200-0096

Dear Residents:

As you know, these offices have represented the District for a number of years. I am writing this personal letter to each of you to be enclosed with the Notice of Upcoming Election to implore each of you to consider filing for election to the District's Board. We have had a problem in the past with keeping Trustees on the Board throughout their entire term.

I am enclosing a copy of the Election Deadlines and a Ballot sent out by the Sarpy County Election Commissioner's Office to the District's Clerk and the Board's counsel. The commitment is not a time consuming although it is very important. I suspect the applicant would be required to attend meetings one or two evenings per year.

Please think about placing your name in nomination by going to the Election Commissioner's Office, picking up your ballot and placing your name in nomination. I look forward to meeting you at the next Board meeting and greatly appreciate your joining us in the leadership of the District.

Sincerely,
